

Edurne
Bartolomé-Peral

Edurne Bartolomé-Peral has a degree in Sociology (University of Deusto), and Political Science and Administration (University of Basque Country). She is lecturer at the University of Deusto (Spain), Faculty of Social and Human Sciences, in the Department of International Relations and Humanities.

She has developed most of her research and publications on the study of political culture, political values and attitudes in comparative perspective, political support and trust, and the application of experimental models. Since 2002 she has worked on the field of values and political attitudes in comparative perspective. She is currently Program Director of EVS in Spain.

She has published in journals such as Democratization, Journal on Ethnopolitics and Minority Issues in Europe (JEMIE), Methodology-European Journal of Research Methods for the Behavioural and Social Sciences, Migraciones, Spanish Journal of Political Science among others, and contributed to books published by Brill, Palgrave McMillan and Routledge, and Göttingen University Press. She is principal investigator of several projects funded by the Spanish Ministry of Science, on distrust in outgroups (Grant number CSO2012-34684 for 2012-2015); Attitudes on fraud and tax evasion (Grant number CSO2015-66077-R for 2015-2018); Social change and value change (Grant number PID2019-106882RB-I00 for the years 2020-2023)

EVS By-Elections 2020
Theory Group

European Values Study 